According to Roadrunner Transportation Systems, Inc. (“Roadrunner”) records, you may be a potential class member in a Settlement of a class action lawsuit involving unauthorized access to certain personally identifiable information of current and former Roadrunner employees, which occurred between April 2018 and May 2018 (“Lawsuit”). The information exposed included names, addresses, social security numbers, phone numbers, dates of birth, payroll information, dependent information, and health plan information (“HR Data”). You may have been affected by the unauthorized access and may be entitled to recovery under the Settlement reached in the case. This Notice informs you of the Settlement, your rights, and available Settlement benefits.

What is this Lawsuit about? The Lawsuit alleges that Roadrunner violated certain duties with respect to the personal data of current and former employees and, as a result, in April 2018 and May 2018 an unauthorized third party may have gained access to HR Data (“Data Exposure”). Roadrunner denies any wrongdoing and denies all claims asserted against it in the Lawsuit. Both sides have agreed to settle the Lawsuit to avoid the cost, delay, and uncertainty of litigation.

What can I get from the Settlement? Class Members who submit a valid and timely Claim Form can get: (a) monetary relief for identity theft and reimbursement of certain expenses resulting from the Data Exposure, depending on the category; and (b) 24 months enrollment in Experian IdentityWorks identity theft protection service. More information on how to submit a valid Claim Form and what the total amount of your claim may be can be found at www.RoadrunnerBreachSettlement.com.

What do I give up? If you remain part of the Settlement Class and do not exclude yourself from the Settlement, you give up the right to sue Roadrunner or its related entities regarding the Data Exposure, whether or not you submit a claim. The full scope of the release of claim is important and is included in the full Notice at www.RoadrunnerBreachSettlement.com.

What if I don't like the Settlement? If you do not want to be legally bound by the Settlement, you must exclude yourself by May 26, 2020 or you will not be able to sue Roadrunner or its related entities for any claims relating to this case. If you exclude yourself, you cannot get money from this Settlement, but you will not give up any claims you may have. If you stay in the Class, you may object to the Settlement by June 25, 2020. Details on excluding yourself and objecting are available at www.RoadrunnerBreachSettlement.com.

Do I have a lawyer in this case? To represent the Settlement Class, the Court has appointed John A. Yanchunis of Morgan & Morgan Complex Litigation Group, and Shannon M. McNulty of Clifford Law Offices P.C. as “Class Counsel.” For litigating the case and negotiating the Settlement, Class Counsel will request from the Court an award of attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses not to exceed $388,000.00. None of the sums awarded for fees, costs and expenses will reduce the sums available to be paid to Settlement Class Members. You may hire your own attorney, at your own expense, but do not have to.

When will the Court approve the Settlement? The hearing is scheduled for August 18, 2020 at 9:30 a.m. before Judge Sara L. Ellis at the Dirksen Federal Building, Courtroom 1403, 219 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois 60604.
